Messy Church

ECO TIPS: Local Shopping

Try to buy what you need from local independent shops like a greengrocers or bakery perhaps. Doing this will directly support local people, shifts the wealth away from huge companies and keeps transportation of goods lower too.

Macmillan Tree of Hope 2026

On Thursday 3rd December 2026 at 6.30pm there will be a short service at St Mary's Church, Easebourne where loved ones who are no longer with us will be remembered. Then we move outside for the lighting up of the Tree of Hope; mulled wine and mince pies will be available. If you would like to make a new dedication for a light on the Macmillan Tree of Hope and a written dedication in the 2026 Book of Love, please complete a dedication and donate online: https://app.donorfy.com/form/BHKJCY8SG8/V6439

Teddy Bears please!

Maureen Pack is running a Teddy Tombola at the Midhurst Fair on the Friday 4th December, raising money for Chestnut Tree House. If anybody has got old teddy bears that they no longer need, please pass them on to Mo.

Stone Pillow

We continue to collect food and other items for Stone Pillow, the local charity helping the homeless: tinned tomatoes, beans etc, sugar, coffee, j-cloths, pan scourers and washing-up liquid. Many thanks, Katharine Minchin.
